The 2022-2023 Woodland Opera House Theatre for Families

Dear Edwina

September 9 – 18, 2022

The heartwarming musical about the joys of growing up from the creators of Junie B. Jones the Musical. Thirteen-year-old Edwina would do anything to be a part of the Kalamazoo Advice-a-Palooza Festival.

While her siblings both have proof of their accomplishments, poor Edwina has nothing. When a talent scout visits her hometown, she trots out her musical advice, giving shows live from the family garage in hopes of finding her place in the spotlight.

Treasure Island

January 13 – 22, 2023

Excitement runs high in this musical adaptation of a favorite childhood adventure story. Robert Louis Stevenson's thrilling tale of pirates, treasure maps, mutiny on the high seas and pieces of eight follows Jim Hawkins, an ordinary youth who is drawn into a dangerous race for buried treasure against the treacherous Long John Silver. This lively show, full of fun characters and music, is great for all ages!

Corduroy

March 17 – 26, 2023

This expansion of the beloved picture book follows Corduroy throughout the department store in search of his missing button while pursued by an increasingly exasperated Night Watchman. In the meantime, Little Lisa searches for a way to win over Mom so she can give the bear a loving home. The tender, enduring story about true friendship stirs up the stage with a rumpus of action, joy, and pathos.

Young Adult Performers

Tom and Meg Stallard present...

The Lightning Thief

June 16 – 25, 2023

As the half-blood son of a Greek god, Percy Jackson has newly discovered powers he can't control, a destiny he doesn't want, and a mythology textbook's worth of monsters on his trail. When Zeus's master lightning bolt is stolen and Percy becomes the prime suspect, he has to find and return the bolt to prove his innocence and prevent a war of the gods. From the best-selling book with an original rock score.

In the Heights

August 5 – 28, 2022

From Lin-Manuel Miranda, the creator of the Broadway phenomenon Hamilton, comes the Tony-Award winning Best Musical about family, community, and life in Washington Heights—a place where windows are always open and the breeze carries the rhythm of music. It's a community on the brink of change, full of hopes, dreams, and pressures, and where the biggest struggle can be deciding which traditions you take with you and which you leave behind.

The Ghost of Woodland Opera House

October 7 – 30, 2022

The new comedy by Matthew Abergel and Bob Cooner tells the story of a troupe of traveling actors in 1909 who arrive at the theatre to perform their latest melodrama. But mysterious accidents make a mess of their dress rehearsal. Could it be the malevolent meddling of the ghost that reportedly haunts the Opera House? Inspired by the real-life heroism of Woodland firefighter William Porter, it's a must-see!

Sharon Joyce presents...

A Christmas Story

November 18 – December 11 2022

Humorist Jean Shepherd's memoir of growing up in the Midwest in the 1940s follows 9-year-old Ralphie in his quest to find a genuine Red Ryder BB gun under the Christmas tree. Ralphie pleads his case before his mother, teacher, and even Santa Claus! The consistent response: "You'll shoot your eye out!" The play includes all the elements from the beloved 1983 movie, which means lots of holiday fun for the whole family.

Kevin & Lorie Haarberg and Roger & Judy Kohlmeier present...

An American in Paris

February 10 – March 5, 2023

Set in the wake of World War II, An American in Paris tells the romantic story of a young American soldier, a beautiful French girl, and an indomitable European city—each yearning for a new beginning in the aftermath of international conflict. Inspired by the Academy-Award winning 1951 film, the musical features a ravishing score by George and Ira Gershwin.

Young Frankenstein

April 14 – May 7, 2023

It's alive! The electrifying adaptation of Mel Brooks' monstrously funny film will leave you in stitches. Grandson of the infamous Victor Frankenstein, Frederick Frankenstein (pronounced "Fronk-en-steen") inherits his family's estate in Transylvania. With the help of a hunchbacked sidekick, he finds himself in the mad scientist shoes of his ancestor as he brings to life a creature that eventually escapes, and hilarity abounds.
