

Jennifer Goldman, D.D.S. and Amy Thu Tran, D.D.S. present
2022-2023 Theatre for Families Season

September 9-18, 2022 The heartwarming musical about the joys of growing up, from the creators of Junie B. Jones The Musical. Thirteen-year-old Edwina would do anything to be a part of the Kalamazoo Advice-a-Palooza Festival. While her siblings both have proof of their accomplishments, poor Edwina has nothing. When a talent scout visits her hometown, she trots out her musical advice, giving shows live from the family garage in hopes of finding her place in the spotlight.

January 13-22, 2023 Excitement runs high in this musical adaptation of a favorite childhood adventure story. Robert Louis Stevenson's thrilling tale of pirates, treasure maps, mutiny on the high seas and pieces of eight follows Jim Hawkins, an ordinary youth who is drawn into a dangerous race for buried treasure against the treacherous Long John Silver. Treasure Island is a lively show, full of fun characters and music, and is great for all ages!

March 17-26, 2023 An expansion of the beloved picture book that follows Corduroy throughout the department store in search of his missing button while pursued by an increasingly exasperated Night Watchman. Little Lisa, in the meantime, searches for a way to win over Mom so she can give the bear a loving home. The tender, enduring story about true friendship stirs up the stage with a rumpus of action, joy, and pathos.

Woodland Opera House 2022-2023 Main Stage Season

August 5-28, 2022 From Lin-Manuel Miranda, the creator of the Broadway phenomenon Hamilton, comes the Tony-Award winning Best Musical about family, community, and life in Washington Heights - a place where windows are always open and the breeze carries the rhythm of music. It's a community on the brink of change, full of hopes, dreams, pressures, and where the biggest struggles can be deciding which traditions to keep.

October 7-30, 2022 The new comedy by Matthew Abergel and Bob Cooner tells the story of a troupe of traveling actors in 1909 who arrive at the theatre to perform their latest melodrama. But mysterious accidents make a mess of their dress rehearsal. Could it be the malevolent meddling of the ghost that reportedly haunts the Opera House? Inspired by the real-life heroism of Woodland firefighter William Porter. A must-see!

November 18-December 11, 2022 Humorist Jean Shepherd's memoir of growing up in the Midwest in the 1940s follows 9-year-old Ralphie in his quest for a genuine Red Ryder BB gun under the Christmas tree. Ralphie pleads his case before his mother, teacher, and even Santa Claus! The consistent response: "You'll shoot your eye out!" Includes all the elements from the beloved 1983 movie, which means lots of holiday fun for the whole family!

February 10-March 5, 2023 Set in the French capital in the wake of World War II, An American in Paris tells the romantic story of a young American soldier, a beautiful French girl, and an indomitable European city - each yearning for a new beginning in the aftermath of international conflict. Inspired by the Academy-Award winning 1951 film and featuring a ravishing score by George and Ira Gershwin.

April 14-May 7, 2023 It's alive! The electrifying adaptation of Mel Brooks' monstrously funny film will leave you in stitches. Grandson of the infamous Victor Frankenstein, Frederick Frankenstein (pronounced "Fronk-en-steen") inherits his family's estate in Transylvania. With the help of a hunchbacked sidekick, he finds himself in the mad scientist shoes of his ancestors as he brings to life a creature that eventually escapes, and hilarity abounds.
